

Consignment Agreement

- Items may be brought in according to our drop schedule during regular business hours. We provide 90 days of selling space in our store for your consignable items. This term may be shortened for seasonal items if brought in near the end of season. All the items need to be brought in according to our drop standards listed below. If your items are not brought in according to our standards your consignment percentage will be 30%.
- We price all inventory based on condition, brand, style and demand. We reserve the right to mark down prices at any time in order to sell the merchandise.
- You will receive 40% of the final selling price. (Unless otherwise stated in your consignment notes). You can use your account credit in store or request a payout at any time, no more than once a month. All inventories are tagged, logged into your account and sales tracked using consignment software. You can call, email or stop by to check on your items at any time during regular business hours.
- Items deemed not sellable will be donated immediately unless you specify at the time of each drop off that you will return to pick them up. After you are contacted or left a message you have 3 business days to pick up any unconsigned items or they will be donated.
- It is the consignor's responsibility to read Our Consignment Standards and keep us updated with any contact changes to your account. Our Consignment Standards are always available online at 4EverGrowingKids.com or in store. Our standards do change from time to time so please review.
- Unsold items at the end of term will be donated to NW Children's Outreach. You are welcome to come in at the end of your consignment period to pick up your unsold items. Please contact us 1 week prior to pick up. Items may not be picked up before the end of your consignment period.
- Accounts dormant for more than 6 months are discontinued and any remaining account credit is forfeited. Unclaimed payment after 6 months will be forfeited.
- We will do our best to look after your items, but we will not be held responsible for fire, theft or damage.
